a mediation session. The role of the Mediator was elucidated and distinguished from the role of an Arbitrator, a conciliator and a Judge. Participants were called upon to notice various techniques employed by Professional Mediators to bring parties to an amicable agreement. Following the discussion on Mediation, the focus was shifted to the process of Negotiation. The panel enlightened the participants on the benefits of the negotiation process in enabling swift, innovative and comprehensive resolutions to contentious matters without requiring the intervention of third parties.

Various negotiation principles such as Needs, Interests, Wants and Motivation were understood and thereafter, scrutinized from a practical perspective, wherein the panel harnessed their combined experience to enable the participants to arrive at a lucid understanding of their relevance to a negotiation.

Second speaker Mrs Sweta Singh ,speak about Negotiation Styles were identified as Aggressive, Collaborative, Avoiding, Compromising and Accommodating and thereafter, the participants were called upon to identify their most preferred negotiation styles. Activities were conducted to enable the participants to appraise each style of negotiation. Additionally, the panel advised the participants on the practical import and consequences of each style, and techniques to navigate through the negotiation while employing these styles. A few test situations were identified and these concepts were applied to understand how these indicators enrich the negotiation process and sculpt the outcome of the negotiation process. Additionally, the panel also undertook to explain the process of arriving at these negotiation indicators through examples from real-world situations. The fitness and

REPORT

Event: Constitution Day 2021

Date: 26 November 2021

Venue: Seminar Hall

No. of Participants –80 students

Report Date – 29 November 2021

"Constitution is not a mere lawyer's document, it is a vehicle of Life, and its spirit is always the spirit of Age."
— B.R. Ambedkar

Saraswati Vidhya Mandir Law College has celebrated the Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas)" on November 26 November 2021 at the college. A total of 80 students and 10 faculty members of the college were participated in the program. The program was executed by Dr. B.K. Singh

A Keynote speech on the topic "Indian Constitution: An overview" was organized to cherish the glory and reaffirm our commitment to uphold the ideology of great Indian constitution. In her lecture to the students, Mrs. Sweta Singh Assistant Professor and HOD of SVM law college described the history of the Indian Constitution, its current shape, and its crucial role in bringing "a concept called India" together.

The preamble of Indian Constitution i.e. India to be a sovereign, socialist, secular and democratic republic which is aiming to secure justice, liberty, equality to all citizens and promote fraternity to maintain unity and integrity of the nation were stressed and the pledge was led by Mr. Pramod Kumar Assistant Professor followed by all the participants. Short film on Indian Constitution was also telecasted to the participants.

Abstract of the Lectures: This Special lecture was organized by Academic Activity Committee .Dr. B.K.Singh has explain special nature of Indian constitution and compared to American constitution. Likefederalism, parliamentarysystem, separation of power, fundamental right, independence of judiciary and secularism in Indian constitution. Federal principle is a method of dividing power so that the general and regional Government are each within a sphere, coordinated, and independent." This form of government is such that there is a distribution of power between the center and State, thereby placing them on an equal footing. Five characteristics define a federal system-

1. Distribution of powers
2. The power of the Constitution
3. Written Constitution
4. Rigidity
5. Authority of Courts

Students and staff participated in this program. Students have understand special feature of Indian constitution .After lecture students were given time to interact with him.

In end of program Mrs. Sweta singh convener of Academic committee of gave vote of thanks for principal sir, faculty member all of present there.

Workshop Coordinator

★ Mrs. Sweta Singh H.O.D. /Assistant Professor, Convener of Research and Publication committee

Workshop

The workshop which was held on 19 March 2022 was at 10.30AM attended by LLM students of svmlaw Law College. The workshop was also attended by Dr. Sundeep kumar Deod of Education Department, Shyam Lal saraswati Mahavidhyalaya shikarpur, Bulandshahr..

The workshop started with the inauguration at 10.30 AM on 19 March 2022.

Mrs. Sweta Singh H.O.D.svmlaw Law College gave the welcome speech and introduced the Workshop to the audience.

The workshop started with the session on 'Fundamentals of Research' by chief guest Dr Sundeep kumar, Professor and Head, Department of Education and briefly discussed the steps to develop a good research proposal and the related key components. Sir also listed good books and stressed on the importance of On-the-Job training. Dr. Sun deep Kumar underlined the importance of carrying out an Ethical research. Sir also emphasized on addressing issues, mapping them in one's own service/product and then being able to practically apply that research in one's own domain.

Vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. Sweta Singh H.O.D. /Assistant Professor, Convener of Research and Publication committee.

Report on Research Methodology Workshop Held on 22 March 2022.

Dr.Sundeep kumar started with a very strong statement that said "Actual Research starts only after PhD." Ma'am focused on the importance of identifying and customizing one's proposal when applying for PhD with the help of a funding agency. She highlighted the importance of making a strong conceptual framework and focused on devoting time while conceptualizing Research Design. Sir also introduced the participants to Notable features of the Mendeley Desktop which is very practical and helpful.

Dr.Sundeep Kumar enlightened the participants and emphasized on the importance of contribution of research in the larger domain and benefaction to the society at large. Sir ended the oration with to make the right minded and the likeminded a part of one's research team.

The Research Scholars and all the other participants were benefitted immensely from this workshop. The workshop motivated the aspiring researchers and also helped the PhD holders update themselves. The University looks forward to conduct multiple informative workshops on Research like this in the near future.

MEANING OF MOOT COURT

Moot Court is an artificial Court which is especially made for the lawful students to have the practical knowledge of drafting, pleading and conveyancing. In the moot court an artificial problem was given to the students for which they have to prepare their arguments and present it before an expert.

According to chambers 20th century dictionary the term moot means to discuss or to argue for practice. Generally the moot courts are organized in law colleges, universities. The student participated in the moot court called as mooters.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MOOT COURT AND REAL COURT.

A moot court is and artificial court prepares for the law students whereas a court is always establish by an act and it is judicial process. In a moot court the students have to argue on the law point only whereas in a real court the filings, arguments are done as per the law and procedural rules.

In a court the Judgement is finally delivered on the basis of facts and circumstances. Whereas in moot court only arguments are held and no judgement will be delivered. In a real court if there is a misconduct on the part of an Advocate he can be tried for contempt of court there is no such provision or strict appliance of the rules.

In a real court practice the Advocate must having a registration or a sanad to appear between court of law whereas in moot court the students have supposed to act as an advocate an argue the matter.

IMPORTANCE OF MOOT COURT.

The moot court is now become the part and parcel of the law syllabus in every university. It is included as a practical syllabus, training paper. The purpose behind making it as a compulsory subject is to make acquainted with the various procedural aspects by the law college students. It gives an opportunity to the students to prepare their own arguments and present it before an expert called Judge. At the one hand it provides an opportunity for the students to know the law, to know the drafting skill, how to present the case before the Judge, the manners and eticates etc.; and the other hand it gives the self-confidence to the students for arguing the case before the Judge.

It increases the stage daring of the students to know there capabilities and short comings. The most important advantage of the law students that it help themes to know the minimum requirements in advocacy so that when they enter into the profession it really helps them to cut down their waiting period.

STAGES OF MOOT COURT.

Formulation of the problem.

The formulation of the problem of the first stage of the moot court generally the problem is taken for the periodical journals that is the decided cases by the High Court or the Supreme Court, but a hypothetical problem may be taken as moot court problem.

Students Participation.

The Students are interested the duties to act an advocate for both the sides to argue the matter.

Appointment of Judges.

Judges are generally from the faculty or the persons having a minimum knowledge of law.

Students Actual Presentation of Case.

This is very important part of the moot court the Students / mooters bear in the mind that they are presenting the matter before the court. They should properly in dress. The manner of presentation gives the additional wattage at the time of argument the mooters should follow the manner and aticates to the fullest extent.

Question & Answer Stage.

After completion of the both sides the judges questions the mooters on the law point. The various specific provision of the law, the authorities etc.

Conclusion and Recommendation.

There is no final Judgement in the moot court. After the question answer session if it is not part of competition then the mistake made by the mooters giving the presentation can be detected and notice to the students to correct it for the next presentation.

Moot Court is a compulsory subject, we take presentations for final year Students, for internal evaluation.

Saraswati Vidya Mandir Law College, Shikarpur, Bulandshahr. College offers different court visit for the law Students. The main objective of court visit is to help the student in understanding the role of the court and judiciary. Generally, students get several opportunities to explore about court, legal system and process that takes place formally. We believe such visit will be a prior way to encourage students towards legal assets. Saraswati Vidya Mandir Law College emphasizes in understanding the role of court in dispensing justice in different cases. The students learn the role of prosecutors, lawyers, and the way cases are proceeded in a court. They get ample opportunity to examine the roles of the judges, prosecutors and defense lawyers. At the mean-while, they learn the ways of handling the case, the relationship of the prosecutors and the concerned stakeholder. Therefore, the students studying at Saraswati Vidya Mandir law College get opportunity to visit Tehsil Court and other places where they can enhance their understanding.
