Value-Added Course on COMMUNITY NUTRITION

Course Introduction

Saraswati Vidya Mandir Law College Shikarpur, Bulandshahr is introducing a non-credit 30 hours customized Community Nutrition. The certificate course aims at extending support and trained the students regarding various basic concept and knowledge about community nutrition. This course will examine the role of nutrition in promoting, maintain and improving health in the community. It investigates traditional aspects of the emerging health delivery system, as well as entrepreneurial ventures. Students will study the financial, legislative, political, sociological, and scientific aspects of public and community health nutrition.

Course Description

This course is a discussion of the principles and programs developed to improve the dietary intake and the nutritional status of individuals and groups within a community. Primary topics covered include: government and nongovernment nutrition-related programs, groups at nutritional risk, nutritional issues/concerns across the lifecycle, and an introduction to developing community-based nutrition intervention programs (needs assessment, intervention, and evaluation). Didactic lectures and guest presentations accompanied with an in-depth needs assessment and intervention project and a community service-learning component will provide students the opportunity to integrate and apply knowledge through a hands-on approach.

Objectives:

College Mob.: 9258321275, 8218421248

1. To develop basic understanding about concept of health from the individual and community perspective
2. Understand the common nutritional problems of the community their causes, symptoms, treatment and prevention
3. To know the schemes, program and policies of Government of India to Combat Malnutrition.

Course Outcomes:

The anticipated outcome of community nutrition programs is that participants will eat healthy food on a regular basis. Improved health is another anticipated result. Some positive outcomes are related to educational efforts. Others are due to a change in behavior. For example, a young mother may recognize the benefits of breastfeeding. A diabetic individual may enjoy ethnic cooking classes and seek additional healthy ethnic recipes. An older adult may find companionship and healthy meals at a senior lunch program. Sometimes positive outcomes are the result of changes beyond an individual's control. When schools change cafeteria offerings and increase physical education requirements, improvements in diet and exercise may occur.

Community nutrition programs may fail because of inadequate funding, program cancellation, poor participation, cultural barriers between program personnel and clients, lack of consistent access to healthy food, and lack of desire on the part of individuals to change.

Course Description- Yoga is a practice that connects the body, Breath, and mind. It uses physical postures, breathing exercises, and meditation to improve overall health. Yoga was developed as a spiritual practice thousands of years ago. Yoga is a practices that connects the body, breath, and mind. It uses physical postures, breathing exercises, and meditation to improve overall health. Yoga was developed as a spiritual practice thousands of years ago. Today, most westerners who do yoga do it for exercise on to reduce stress. Yoga can improve your overall fitness level and improve your posture and flexibility. It may also, lower your blood pressure and heart rate, help you relax, improve your self confidence reduce stress, improve your coordination, improve your concentration, help you sleep better. Aid with digestion. In addition, practicing yoga may also help with the following conditions:- Anxiety, back pain, Depression. Pat Anjali is known as the of modern yoga and It was proposed by prime minister Narendramodi during his speech of the united nations general assembly in 2014 and was overwhelmingly supported by the member state.

Learning Objectives- The main aim of yoga is integrating the body, mind and thoughts so as to work for good and. Modern life style leads to diseases, Which are mostly due to poor food habits, heavy daily routines and to air and water pollution in turn easily affect the human body. To enable the student to have good health. To practice mental hygiene. To possess emotional stability. To integrate moral values. Yoga increase your flexibility. Many people take up yoga to improve their fleseibility and range of motion improve strength and build endurance, get stranger bones, Regulate your emotions, build balance, Reduce stress and anxiety, strengthen your mind, promote positive thinking.

Out comes- The purpose of yoga is to create harmony in the physical, vital, mental, psychological and spiritual aspects of the human being. In the foregoing page of this book, I have described the of relaxation in different postures via, standing, lying and sitting postures which brings in this harmony. Yoga is not were practice for an hour or two in a day but it is the most scientific way of living, all the twenty four hours of the day. During the whale day you may be only in one of these three postures and hence a skillful adjustment in them will effect. The required harmony. "Yoga asthahkuruKarmani be established is yoga and do all your duties. "Yoga Karmasukausalam yoga is skill action". Skill here means to be in tune with the nature of the supreme reality. Be a yoga always, is the loving instruction of lord Krishna. Convent life into yoga, so that you may ensure success in all the fields of activity by regular practice, by using your presence of mind. Skill and wisdom, you can become yogins and enjoy happiness and peace, whatever be the circumstances and conditions in which you are placed.

Course Description- A food and nutrition course is a learning process that will enable you with the skills required to research, process, and preserve the nutritional components in our food. The nutritional components are protein, carbohydrates, vitamins, fiber, minerals and fat. The scope in food and nutrition courses is broad. The course provides students with the learning of the importance of nutrition in our food. It teaches them the skills and knowledge to preserve the nutritious elements in our diet with an aim to having a healthy diet. The degree covers in depth learning about nutrients, vitamins, food science, malnutrition, obesity management and various other subjects. Nutritional Science has its roots in life sciences; it encompasses both biological and social sciences. Nutrition plays a major role in enhancing the quality of life through improved physical growth, immune-competence and enhancing productivity with improved health. Social, economic and cultural factors influence food consumption pattern and thus nutrition status of the individual. Further, changes in nutrient composition during food processing and storage also needed to be studied. Thus our course offerings traverse the entire foods cape. The courses and learning experiences in the college are designed in such a way to provide both the biological and social science perspectives.

Course Objectives and Outcome- Students will be able to interpret and apply nutrition concepts to evaluate and improve the nutritional health of communities. Students will be able to integrate knowledge and skills in food and nutrition with professional issues affecting the nutrition and or dietetics fields. Food Nutrition Hygiene aims is to utilize knowledge from the physical and biological sciences as a basis for understanding the role of food and nutrients in health and disease processes. To provide nutrition counseling and education to individuals, groups, and communities throughout the life's pan using a variety of communication strategies. To impart in-depth knowledge in the area of Food, Nutrition and its relation to health. To understand human physiological process and importance of nutrients in metabolism. To train the students to be inquisitive and think in an innovative way.

Enrollment Ends:25-01-2021

Exam Date:10-03-2021

Course Description-It introduces students to traditions of thinking about Law and justice, morality and justice. The course look at theories of law and the ores of justice, the tradition of natural law thinking, and scrutinizes situations in which law and justice come into tension. Law is concerned with a person's individual liberty, while morality is concerned with collective conceptions of what is good and evil. Law governs a man's behavior when he is a member of a particular society. Whereas morals Govern a man's behavior even when he is alone. Moral Law is a system of guidelines For behavior. These guidelines may or may not be part of religion, codified in writer from, or legally enforceable. For some people moral law is synonymous with the commands of a divine being. For others, moral law is a set of universal rules that should apply to everyone.

Learning Objectives- As stated before, the end goal of enacting laws is to maintain a society that is based on principles of justice, fairness and equality. The entire purpose of having certain moral standards is also to maintain some sort of order in the society which would lead to fewer conflicts. A close link exists between morality and the rule of law, since morality complements the rule of law. At the some moment it should still be considered a casual bridging between the both, as laws are not made out of moral principles, rather, they are established and shaped by a legal consensus of right and wrong. Thus, it provides the government to punish the offender. There are many purposes served by the law. Out of these, the main four are maintaining order, establishing standards, protecting liberties, and resolving disputes.

Outcomes-The law is a tool for efficiently enforcing moral values. Morality is an internal concept, while the law is external; If someone does not follow morality in his actions, there will be no consequences; but, If someone disobeys the law, there will be consequences. It is clear that law and morality have a long history and it is believed that law is heavily influenced by morality. While that is true, it can also be observed that rules and regulations also have a great impact on the moral standards that exist in society.
