Sir,

The Bar Council of India has considered the matter regarding grant of extension of approval of affiliation to the Centres of Legal Education which have applied for further extension and deposited the requisite inspection fee. Since the inspection of the above Centres of Legal Education could not be carried out due to unavoidable circumstances. After consideration, Council passed the following resolution in this regard :-

It appears to be very difficult for the Council to undertake all the pending inspections of the existing institutions due to paucity of time. The academic session 2013-2014 has already begun and under these unavoidable circumstances, the Council resolves that existing Centres of Legal Education which have applied for extension of approval for the session 2013-2014 and have deposited the requisite inspection fee be granted approval and affiliation for the academic year 2013-2014 only. It is resolved that the Council shall have to complete the process of inspection before the next approval in the light of the provisions of the Advocate Act, 1961 contained in section 7(i) read with Section 7 (iii) along with the rules namely, the Bar Council of India Rules, Part IV namely Rules 16, 17 and 18. It is made clear that the above said resolution shall not apply to the following:-

1. Institutions will have to deposit the inspection fee for the further approval or extension, if the period of three years has lapsed. But the Council extension would not apply in cases of law colleges whose approval of affiliation has been declined by the Legal Education Committee of the Bar Council of India.

- 4. Those Centres of Legal Education which have been deemed approved by Bar Council of India for the year 2012-2013 but has been given liberty to apply again.

It is further made clear that the extension of approval of affiliation now granted is conformant with the affiliation granted by the University.

The aforesaid law college has applied for further extension of affiliation. The college is allowed to take admission for this session 2012-2013 with existing strength in respect of 3 years law course.

The Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 5th May, 2012 has considered your application for seeking extension of approval of affiliation from the academic year 2012-2013. After consideration the Council has decided as follows (relevant portion of the decision is given below):

Since next academic session 2012-2013 is going to begin very soon and it is not at all feasible for the Council to complete the inspection of all existing or new law colleges within a short span of period. Under these unavoidable circumstances the Council has resolved to grant temporary extension of approval of affiliation to all the existing law colleges, who have deposited the inspection fee and submitted the necessary documents and it is made clear that this is a "one time measure only" for the academic session 2012-2013. In the meantime, it is further made clear that the concerned institution will have to deposit the inspection fee for the further approval of extension, if the period of three years has lapsed. But this deemed extension would not apply in cases of law colleges, whose approval of affiliation have been declined by the Legal Education Committee of the Bar Council of India.

Council further resolved to speed up pending inspection and it is made clear that in case, in course of inspection, the institutions who have got automatic temporary extension of approval of affiliation, are not found fit under the rules of the Bar Council of India, their approval of affiliation may be withdrawn from the next academic session after giving them an opportunity to explain the things. For new Institution, the earlier resolution would be followed.

Therefore the college is allowed to take admission in 3 year law course with existing intake of students for the academic year 2012-13 subject to furnishing the information sought in the enclosed proforma. The inspection of your college will be carried out shortly by Bar Council of India.

It is further made clear that the extension of approval of affiliation now granted is coterminous with the affiliation granted by the University.
