Opening remarks and introduction of the program was given by Mr. Pramod kumar .He was the chief anchor of program.

Mrs. Sweta Singh was keynote speaker of the seminar. She say that Ambedkar’s thoughts, the Indian Constitution guarantees equal rights to all, based on social Justice and human dignity. It is observed, however, that Ambedkar's ideas of social justice could not be realized in a proper manner over the years. As such, his concept of justice will have to be propagated by institutions through civil society.

Ambedkar was concerned about the overall development of the vulnerable sections of the Indian society and he chose to demolish existing caste discrimination by enacting the Constitution. Therefore, Ambedkar's ideas of social justice remain relevant in contemporary Indian society in promoting constitutional and legal methods for upholding the rights and dignity of the vulnerable sections.

In this way the unique life of Bharat Bhushan Ambedkar has become a new source of learning and a new source of inspiration for devotees. From it has emerged a new deity, and the lamp that will be burning in its temple in this land of temples will be seen from all sides of the nation and from distant comers of the world. A new academy of knowledge, a new inspiration for poetry, a new place of pilgrimage and a new opportunity for literature have sprung up.

Mr. Varun Kumar Singh enlisted the knowledge of students y, we need to look at the nature of our politics and electoral system after nearly seven decades of the working of the Constitution. Over centralization of power at the union level and the first-past-the-post system of elections have exacerbated the worst features of a flawed democracy. Today vote buying, large consumption subsidies without addressing the structural problems of poverty and income deprivation, and increasing mobilization of votes by polarizing society on caste, region and religion have become the key features of our electoral democracy.

The Program was conducted by co-curricular Activity Committee .12 students had present paper in session. Student Anurag Bargoti , Mohit kumar Sexsena , Susmita , Khshboo, Juber Khan , Anshika and others were speak thought on seminar topic. 60 students present in this program .Mrs. Usha Gupta gave the thanks for all faculty members,non-teaching staff and all students whom were present in seminar.

Report
On
One Day Seminar on Right to Information

Date – 17 December 2022

Venue – Seminar Hall

Resource Person : Ms. Vidhyanjali Singh H.O.D. / Assistant Professor of CERT Meerut

No. of Participants – 52 Students of LL.B.

Report Date – 22 December 2022

A seminar on “Right to Information Act” was organized by co-curricular activity committee of SVM Law College, Shikarpur, Bulandshahr. The resource person Ms. Vidhyanjali Singh H.OD./ Assistant professor of CERT Meerut spoke on Right to Information, its need and application procedure to request for any information, time limit to obtain the information, what are the grounds for rejection to obtain the information. She highlighted on different RTI complaints filed by the common people and benefits of such complaints. She also informed the students to use RTI as a tool to empower themselves.

The Right to Information Act, 2005 was enacted with the avowed objective of providing an effective framework for effectuating the Right of Information recognized under Article 19 of the Constitution of India and to provide for setting the practical regime of RTI for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority.

With the expansion of economy, people's quest for right to information has increased and so has the demand for the inspection of record held by the Government departments and various public authorities. Perhaps, because of the apprehensions that the masses may not get alienated, the Government thought it imperative to initiate steps to bridge the gap with the people through the Right to Information Act and ultimately diminish the aura of mystery around the decision-making and functioning of the Government to make people feel that they are an integral part of the Government system or governance, the Indian democracy through the Right to Information Act, 2005, has made

Importance

The RTI Act, 2005 did not create a new bureaucracy for implementing the law. Instead, it tasked and mandated officials in every office to change their attitude and duty from one of secrecy to one of sharing and openness.

It carefully and deliberately empowered the Information Commission to be the highest authority in the country with the mandate to order any office in the country to provide information as per the provisions of the Act. And it empowered the Commission to fine any official who did not follow the mandate.

Right to information has been seen as the key to strengthening participatory democracy and ushering in people centered governance.

Access to information can empower the poor and the weaker sections of society to demand and get information about public policies and actions, thereby leading to their welfare. It showed an early promise by exposing wrongdoings at high places, such as in the organization of the Commonwealth Games, and the allocation of 2G spectrum and coal blocks.

Right to information opens up government's records to public scrutiny, thereby arming citizens with a vital tool to inform them about what the government does and how effectively, thus making the government more accountable.

Improves decision making by public authority by removing unnecessary secrecy.

Challenges

Different types of information is sought which has no public interest and sometimes can be used to misuse the law and harass the public authorities. For example-

To attain publicity by filing RTI

RTI filed as vindictive tool to harass or pressurize the public authority

Because of the illiteracy and unawareness among the majority of population in the country, the RTI cannot be exercised.
